Northern Securities Decision Upsets Things.

PRICES WERE ADVANCING

Steady Demand to Cover Shorts Had Lifted Prices One to Two Points When the Bottom Dropped Out. Late Rally and Close Steady.

(By Associated Press.)

"FAV YORK, April 9.—The unexpected subcouncement of the decision in the Northern Securities' case to-day threw the stock market into commention and put a sudden end to a duil, but prosperous ipward course of prices. There have been vague fears for some time recently had apparently subsided for the recently had apparently subsided for the present, and it was clearly not one of the company in this case, but and the was capted and the weight of apprehension was in fact, heaviest on the bear pay in stocks, as was manifasted by their disinction to leave commitments on the short side open over the holday.

A steady demand to cover shorts had lifted prices to the bear pay in stocks, as was manifasted by their disinction to leave commitments on the short side open over the holday.

A steady demand to cover shorts had lifted prices to the prospect that the banks would make a favorable statement of conditions on Saturday, while the saturable statement of conditions on Saturday, while the stream of the prospect that the banks would make a favorable statement of conditions on Saturday, while the stream of the prospect that the banks would make a favorable statement of conditions on saturday, while the stream of the prospect that the banks would make a favorable statement of conditions on the saturable statement of conditions on the prospect that the banks would make a favorable statement of conditions on the prospect that the banks are closed for the base received from the interior something over a million dollars in the same time. In view of this prospect the firmness of call money to-day was rather labored being attributed to the special denand to carry over the triple holiday.

Late in the day after the money rate flurried to 10 per cent. Steam of the prospect was considered power and other of the carry many considered power and other of the c couraging effect on those who hope for a renewal.

EDITORS' VIEWS :

the New York Afternoon Papers Say About Yesterday's Trading.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, April 9.—The Mail and

(Special to Intermental Control of the Mail and NEW YORK, April 9.—The Mail and Express says: The sudden and unexpected announcement that the government of the Worthern Securities cases spolled a very promising stock market and divided the list exchange session of the week into two distinct periods, piece of strength and the other of weakness. The decision came like a funderciap in a clear sky, as it dad not generally been looked for hefore the first of May, hence there was a sharb selling pressure which carried prices down with a rush. The decline was general in character, extending from 1 to 3 points from the highest, and as much as 7 in Lackawanna, which stock, however, had previously risen 12 points.

The early advance, which was quite solven, as a higher market for Americans at London and a decided rise in Southern Pacific at home and abroad were largely instrumental in dissipating the possimistic feeling that has so long dominated the course of the stock market.

feeding that has so long dominated to course of the stock market.

The Commercial-Advertiser says: The announcement of the government's victory in the Northern Securities case fell upon to-day's market like a thunderboil out of a clear sky. Up to the early afternoon the whole stock list had been very strong, with a strong upward tendency at his prices. Gains of a point to a point and a half were established than it has been more genuy one time. The news from St. The strong upward tendency as more genuy one time. The news from St. The strong time of the stock market was generally firm with stock market star genus in Union Pacific and Southern Pacific. The advance in these stock market star genus in Union Pacific and Southern Pacific merger matter had southern Pacific merger matter had southern Pacific merger matter had the whole character of the market changed. Prices fell violently in all directions, and speculators who had bought for a rise threw over their holdings in great haste. The market at one time in the afternoon seemed to be bordering upon a plante of utter demoralization. But this was for only a few minutes. At the low level substantial buying orders were oncountered and a partial railty set in, which was still in progress, at the close.

The other news of the day cut little figure in the dealings. It appears from the preliminary returns that the banks have gained nearly $2.00,000 from interior and sub-Treasury so far this week.

Time money grew decidedly easied during the day, being offered at 5 per cent.

The Dvening Post says: It cannot, personner between the day, being offered at 5 per cent.

The Evening Post says: It cannot, perhaps, be said with entire exactness that the Northern Securities' decision was a "bolt from the blue." The skies above the corporation's deals of 190 have never been wholly clear since it was made plain on February 20th of last year that the Northwestern merger would not go unchallenged. It has been pointed out often

WALL STREET GOSSIP

AMALGAMATED COPPER:

A. C. P. railled and seemed to have been oversold. Trade interests were by no means bearish and argued that the present price of the metal was likely to be maintained, and represented a great addition to the earnings of Amalgamated Copper.

PENNSYLVANIA:
There seemed to be some covering of shorts in the stock in the loan crowd is the seemed to be some covering of shorts in the stock in the loan crowd is there has been the usual amount of selling against the rights. There is also a short interest against purchases of the CONVEYING BEARLY SEEMED.

DARLY SENTIMENT BULLISH:
Sentiment in the room in the first hour was distinctly buillish, although active trading was confined to a very limited number of stocks. The volume of trading was comparatively small and looked like getting smaller. Floor traders were following any active buying, but the larger operators were apparently not doing anything.

most part were retained, while fairly heavy realizing, particularly in Rock Rock Island, was well taken. There was a little commission house buying, but not enough to seriously influence the market, and the London trading was light.

with 800 men on the pay-rolls.

THE SHARP BREAK:
A little after 1 o'clock the decision against the Northern Securities' merger was announced, and after the street had realized the importance of the news stocks which had up to then been acting very well sold off. The two point decline in Northern Securities on the curb represented about the extent of the break, which, however, was generally in the railrond list.

The selling of Rock Island has come from the interests associated with the company, and is preparatory to the issue of stock for the Frisco merger.

NEW YORK CENTRAL:
New York Central showed some early strength on the knowledge that no new financing will be attempted this spring, but reacted with the rest of the market
on the Northern Securities' decision.

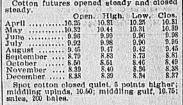

on the Northern Securius' decision.

MOVEMENT OF MONEY:
The principal movement of currency for the five days anding Wednesday, April 8th, Indicates that the banks gained thereby $1.94,600. They received from the interior $3,195,500 and sent to the Interior $1,91,800. The grin from the interior was $1,203,600. Receipts of new gold were $134,-200, of which $753,400 was on New York Assay Office checks, $39,600 on San Francisco mint checks, and $20,500 on Seattle Assay Office.

THE CLOSE: Closing prices clearly reflected the selling of out-of-town holders of stocks on the Northern Securities' decision. This was not in remarkable volume and the market at no time got out of hand, but, of course, the decline on the day was appreciable in all the active railroad stocks.

COTTON MARKETS.

NIEW YORK, April 9.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 104 points, and following the call ruled generally firm under continued coveling by May shorts and fresh purchases by the buil pool. But while as a result of these operations a new high record for the season was established in the Map option, trading was comparatively quiet, with the developments in May and July attracting almost exclusive attention. The initial advance was encouraged by cables that were just a trille better than expected but it was a cocouraged by cables that were just a trille better than expected but it was a cocouraged by cables that were just a trille better than expected but it was a cocouraged by cables that were just a trille better than expected but it was provided to the compared to have little attention, and the bulk of the day's usiness represented little more than a fresh scare of May shorts. The approaching holidays had naturally some influence, as many of the room contingent apparently preferred covering to carrying the contracts on the short side over until Monday and risk possible unfavorable climatic developments. The buying was accelerated around mid-day by moderate estimates for tomorrow's receipts at leading Southern points, and shortly after noon the high level of the day and of the season was reached when May sold at 10.44. July, however, solling no higher than 2.98, was at this time 1 point under the previous high price. From this level there was a slight reaction toward the close, due to realizing, and the market was finally steady, net left points higher. Total sales estimated at 150,000 hales.

At 2:20 o'clock Wednesday he performed the ceremony for Mr. Murray G. Toya and Miss Pearl May Hanvey. At 9 F. M. he o'fficiated at the marriage of Mr. Edward S. Mahone and Miss Bettle T. Ellett. The bride is a popular young lady of East Richmond. Last night he Joined in holy matrimony Mr. Walter L. Haynes and Miss Alice T. Duke. They are both from the county. The groom told the minister that his bride was only seventeen. She looked not a day older than that and the groom looked like he was not more than afneteen. Their ages were put down in the license at the courthouse as twenty-one each.

JUDGE CAMPBELL DECLINES TO TALK

Senate Will Not Take Up His Case Earlier Than Next

yesterday Judge Campbell, who was calmly reading about himself in the aternoon paper, declined in any way to office.

At that time the Judge did not know how long he would be in Richmond. It is possible that he will be here for several days, yet.

The Senate will hardly take up the Campbell removal joint resolution before next Tuesday, and possibly not until next Wednesday. Monday is a legal holiday, and many of the members of the Senate have gone to their homes, and will remain until Tuesday, some probably longer. No attempt to take the resolution up will be made without a fairly large attendance of members. This will hardly be had before Wednesday, and it may be oven later.

be had before Wednesday, and it may be even later.
When the resolution comes up its passage will possibly be delayed by some opposition along the line of objection to the method of procedure, rather than opposition to the end sought to be accomplished by the measure. How formidable this opposition may prove cannot with certainty be foreseen, but it is hardly probably that the case will be disposed of with such expedition as the House exhibited yesterday. There are undoubtedly some members of the Senate who, without regard to the question of the proly some members of the senate who, within our regard to the question of the propriety of removing the judge, are opposed to the plan adopted by the House for compassing the result sought to be attained by the joint resolution.

USUAL LULL AFTER THE STORM

House Will Take Up Tonnage Tax Bill To-Day. Matters were very quiet in legislative circles last night, and there was the proverbial lull after such a storm as has lashed and beat upon the shores for the past several weeks. The tonnage tax bill lashed and beat upon the shores for the past several weeks. The tennage tax bill will come up as a special order in the House to-day, but a great many members will be absent, and no very spirited session is looked for. In the Senate Interest will center around the Campbell removal resolutions, though no action is likely to be taken upon them further than to-set a day for taking them up or to refer them to a committee. The law-makers have been greatly wearled by the heavy work of the week so far, and they will likely take things easy until next week. General Rufus A. Ayers, of Wise, and other prominent Southwest Virginians are in the city to urge a modification of the tennage tax bill, which will be taken up in the House to-day.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS

Pizzini Show Printing Company Goes to Larger Quarters.

One of the important business improvements of the month is that of the Pizzini Show Printing Company, which is moving its headquarters from north. Twelfth Street to the larger and more commodious quarters at No. 104 South Eighth Street, where Mr. Juan Pizzini has made extonsive improvements.

In enlarging his quarters Mr. Pizzini has also added to his equipment a large new press, and a large quantity of poster type, with which he says he is now able to turn out anything from a postage stamp to a circus bill.
